3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 864 sqft

Residential on 5.30 Acres

NA, ZOLFO SPRINGS, FL

I hear you are looking for some acreage around 5 or so and possibly on the water. You want privacy and relaxation be able to not be seen from the road and have maybe nature paths and some cleared areas, but mostly all natural woods. I also understand that you would like maybe a fire pit and it would be nice if maybe there was a hunting blind somewhere in a tree. You mentioned you would love to be able to kayak and canoe from your own private little beach area as well as be able to look for fossils in the water and along the shoreline. You mentioned maybe some sort of structure for storage or maybe something like a gutted mobile home you could transition into a place to live all year or maybe just for vacations or weekends. It was mentioned that something that maybe had 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms was awesome even if some restoration was needed. It was brought to light that you love nature and "living off the grid" like on TV ,so having a solar system, even if batteries were needed, would be just a giant step into self sustaining. Since you love to hunt, it would be a big plus if you were able to do that too. Well I heard all your thoughts and criteria for buying and I think I have JUST the place for you that has just been listed by some folks that have gone into full time business and just dont have the time any more. They will truly miss all the camping weekends, sitting around the fire pit, or down by the water fishing or fossil hunting. Many many good times but its time to pass on to a new owner so they can love it too they said. This new listing will require an appointment and being escorted by a Realtor, but it will be worth your time. Call and get scheduled.
